HOUSEHOLD IDOLS

Better Homes and Gardens with Mark Henderson! The modern-day interior gets a relaxing, sexy and self-confident makeover, complete with silk cushions, Ming vases and marble showers. Perfect, well-built bodies blend exquisitely into their surroundings and provide us with fresh, new decorating ideas.

Henderson catapults us into a dream world full of opulent settings right out of a Hollywood props room, enticing and intoxicating our senses. Unattainable models before a homey backdrop turn the kitchen, broom closet and garden into a setting of sensuality and sexual attraction. These men languishingly lounge in every room, shamelessly showing off their Grade A beef qualities. Digitally photographed and masterfully color-enhanced, these photographs adorning 160 large-format pages offer the viewer a seldom-seen peek into everyday beauty.

Mark Henderson works as an art historian with an emphasis on 17-century European painting. In the area of photography, he is most interested in expressive colors and the chiaroscuro effects perfected in the late renaissance and during the baroque period. Henderson lives and works in Los Angeles and Texas.
