Dale Lazarov & Bastian Jonsson

NIGHTLIFE

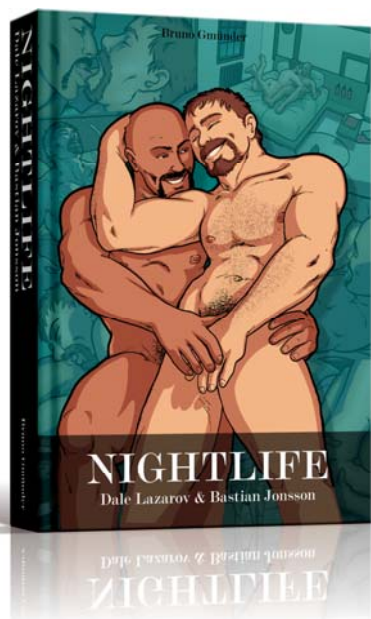

NIGHTLIFE is the name of the new book by Dale Lazarov. This time the masterful narrator of gay short stories teamed up with the Swedish illustrator Bastian Jonsson, who puts Lazarov's ideas into effect with a lot of love and an eye for the details. Like in the predecessors STICKY and MANLY there are three cheeky gay comics that surprise with a little tenderness from time to time. Three short stories that are all about men in their best years; men who are just into the one thing: having sex with other men!

Lazarov's sensual and sexy storyboard and Jonsson's clearly drawn, masculine figures make a perfect match. NIGHTLIFE is a celebration of flesh and lust.

The stories work without any words. They offer plenty of space to use your own fantasy. It's always clear where the nightly encounters will lead to ... but that's exactly why it's so much fun and pleasure to follow those hearty hunks from the club to the bedroom.

Dale Lazarov, who lives and works in Chicago, made a name for himself in 2006 with his comic book STICKY (with co-author Steve MacIssac) and the follow up MANLY (with co-author Amy Colburn). He lives and works in Chicago.
